Aurox is an start-up located in Graz, partner of the Science Park in Graz and Medical University of Graz.

The main activity is focused in the relation between innovative uses of technology and health.

PRODUCT mision: treat ear infections by cooling instead of intensive medication

Aurox is a portable device that cools inflamed skin at the entry of the ear canal; directly targeting the areas of pain for those suffering from outer ear infections (otitis externa). This handy device, which utilizes thermo-electric cooling, is able to control optimum temperatures in order to relieve patients' discomfort.

We are looking for motivated individuals who want to be part the development and launch of a patented and innovative product. You will participate in a product release, work together with the founders of the company and see how the released product will fare in the market and what the customer response is. If you are looking for an exciting internship where a lot will happen, this is it.
