

X Spanish Society Meeting-Clare Hall University of Cambridge

Bilbao, Saturday, 1st.October 2016

Bizkaia Aretoa

Avenida Abandoibarra, 3, 48009 Bilbao

SALA ARRIAGA (free entrance)

9:30 Institutional opening session

Amaia Esquisabel, Director of Science Policy of Basque Government

Fernando Plazaola, Deputy Vice Chancellor of the University of the Basque Country

David Ibbetson, President of Clare Hall, University of Cambridge

10:00 Presentations

10:00 Why I think Spanish Law matters -David Ibbetson-University of Cambridge

10:30 Should countries or regions bet on manufacturing? – A critical view on its benefits for an economy – Jon Charterina Abando – University of the Basque Country

11:00 Ether and Modernity. The recalcitrance of an agonizing epistemic object - Jaume Navarro - Ikerbasque & University of the Basque Country

11:30 Coffee break

12:00 How did the last Carlist War challenge Red Cross' earliest humanitarian agenda – Jon Arrizabalaga - IMF-CSIC, Barcelona

12:30 Does Brexit really mean Brexit? - Alberto López Basaguren - University of the Basque Country

13:00 The Pierre Menard Syndrome: Don Quijote, from Book to Myth - Pedro Javier Pardo
University of Salamanca

13:30 – Closure of the academic event by the Organizers

Elena Vecino Cordero- Dept. of Cell Biology and Histology, University of the Basque Country

Covadonga Aldamiz-echevarría- Dept. of Business, University of the Basque Country

14:00 Lunch and visit to The Guggenheim Museum

