ORDINARY EXAMINATION PERIOD: GUIDELINES AND OPTING OUT

ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

1. CONTINUAL ASSESSMENT

Course grades will be based on practical assignments developed through the semester. Both the process and the results will be taken into account for final assessment.

Breakdown of the weight for each component of the final grade:

Minor assignments: 50%
 Final short documentary: 50%

If the student cannot follow continual assessment (for justified reasons) there is a possibility to opt for the FINAL EVALUATION.

2. FINAL EVALUATION OPTION:

Students who cannot follow regular classes and/or participate in the continuous evaluation system can be assessed in a final exam. The grade of this exam will be 100% of the final grade.

Students willing to choose this option should discuss it with the professor. Deadline and procedure: According to art. 8.3. of the Regulation of Student Evaluation, students willing to abandon the option of continuous evaluation and opt for a single final exam must write a letter of resignation within the first 9 weeks of the semester.

RESIGNATION TO THE EXAM (ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS):

According to art. 12.2. of the Regulation of Student Evaluation, students can resign to do the exam and directly take the exam of the second call if they notify the professor one month before the end of classes. An official resignation letter must be presented to the professor of this course.

*This assessment system will be applied both face-to-face and/or non-face-to-face, in the event that the situation demanded.

EXTRAORDINARY EXAMINATION PERIOD: GUIDELINES AND OPTING OUT

EXTRAORDINARY EXAMINATION

In the extraordinary examination, the student will have to fulfil the requirements for the FINAL EVALUATION option (see above). It is recommended to attend office hours during the development of project in order for the professor to follow the learning process.
