INFORMATION ABOUT THE CITY AND THE AREA WHERE THE COMPANY/ISTITUTION IS LOCATED (General information about SECURITY, ACCOMODATION, PUBLIC TRANSPORT...)	Amsterdam is the capital of the Netherlands. It is a vibrant city with many inhabitants from all over the world. Despite its size, it doesn't feel huge and one can really feel at home fast. The city is really open and if you want and feel like it; making new friends is very well possible. As in every big city, less good things happen in Amsterdam, but generally it is a very safe city with many parks and we even have the Amsterdam Forest. We have many festivals. The climate has its variations, it can be cold, windy and rainy but frequently the climate can be friendly and dry, summers can be even warm by times. No year is the same. The public transport is very good; Bus, tram, metro and train take you everywhere if needed and since Holland is not so big- you can easily plan daytrips to other cities. Next to that; Amsterdam is the city of bikes, so if you practice a bit; you can save some money because the public transport isn't the cheapest. If you want a room/house under 600 euro per month; the best thing is to arrange a flat when you arrive (this was explained by our foreign employees) and stay a little while in hotels/hostels or air bnb-places. Searching something from abroad is not so easy. Our office is situated in the West part of Amsterdam centre in the neighborhood called 'The Baarsjes' and it takes around 10 minutes to really get into the citycentre from there. There is supermarket close to our office, a bakery, 2-3 coffee places, a bar/restaurant and several tram/busstops are closeby. Special is that we are situated on the fifth floor of a former municipaly office building, so we have an almost 360 degrees view over the skyline of Amsterdam and thus a very bright and light office.

OTHER COMMENTARIES	Amaia Oyabide, who came to Holland within your program in another architecture firm that we know, worked after the program for almost 2 years in our office and we really enjoyed her stay, as well personal – she is a great person as a colleague – as business wise; she really is a good and talented employee who really contributed in a positive way to our office works. Recently we still have in our office Xabier Larrinaga, who got a 2 year contract after his exchange program.
