

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from the University of Ljubljana.

We hope you, your families and colleagues are all safe and well.

In response to the worldwide pandemic we decided to redesign some of our summer school courses. We are planning to organize some courses on-line and some of the courses will be postponed in 2021. In case of good epidemiological situation regarding COVID-19 in Slovenia, we will organize some courses face-to-face.

Our members (faculties and academies) offers 30 summerschool in 2020 from a wide variety of areas: from economic and business sciences, law, social sciences to art, theology, veterinary and technical sciences. The most traditional ones are the summer school programmes organised by the Faculty of Arts: the 56th Seminar of Slovenian Language, Literature and Culture, and the 39th Summer School of Slovenian Language, attracting more Slovenian language enthusiasts from all over the world each year. We also offer freely accessible online course in Slovene (Slovene Learning online) for all those who wish to learn Slovene on their own in a simple, playful and effective way. You can join the course at www.slonline.si.

You can find more detailed information on the summer school courses (dates, registration, fees, fields, target group) at our website www.uni-lj.si/study/summerschools.

We would also like to let you know that we are planning to carry out the study process in the next academic year as usual. In the event of a recurrence of COVID-19 or the re-imposition of coronavirus precautionary measures, we will adjust the study process from face-to-face to online or blended teaching/learning.

These summer school courses should be of interest to any students who would like to discover more about the University of Ljubljana, Ljubljana and Slovenia before joining us through any of our existing exchange partnerships. Please feel free to pass on this information to your departments and/or any interested students.

We look forward to our further fruitful collaboration.

S prijaznimi pozdravi /Kind regards,
