International Language Week 2014

Welcome on a language teaching exchange to Finland! The week will be arranged in cooperation by Centria and Seinäjoki Universities of Applied Sciences.

You have the opportunity to
• meet colleagues from the field of language teaching
• get to know local language classes and students
• teach in eight lessons as required by Erasmus+ Staff Mobility for Teaching
• teach languages in practice
• participate in the workshop on “Intercultural Competence”, hosted by keynote lecturer Jonas Stier, Professor of Sociology, Mälardalen University, Sweden
• participate in our social program getting to know colleagues from different countries

The didactic objectives are:
• Team teaching in culture and language learning
• Academic networking and professional development
• Pedagogical exchange through workshops for language teachers

You can teach in one (or two) of the following language courses:
Professional competence:
• English
• Swedish
• Intercultural communication

Beginner’s level:
• German (in Seinäjoki and Kokkola)
• French (in Kokkola)
• Russian (in Kokkola and Seinäjoki)
• Spanish (in Kokkola)
• Swedish (in Kokkola)

ILW 2014 - Information

Dates: 17-21 November 2014
Hosts: Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences & Centria University of Applied Sciences
Location: Seinäjoki and Kokkola, Western Finland, located at one hour’s distance by train

How to apply: Please send a CV together with a brief professional introduction of yourself by June 15 2014 to the representative of your partner institution below. Make sure you express clearly which language course(s) you wish to teach.

SeAMK: Heli Simon, Language Coordinator heli.simon@seamk.fi
Centria: Peter Finell, International Relations Manager peter.finell@centria.fi