

Basque Coast Summer School

13-17 July 2015

Pau University

On the French Atlantic Coast near Biarritz

Five mornings of classes, in English, open to all and taught by renowned American professors.

*Afternoons free
for beach, culture,
sightseeing, etc.*

Choose one of four courses on offer:

1. "Third World Women": Gender and the Global South.

Samantha Christiansen, Marywood University, Scranton, Pennsylvania, USA.

2. Economics of Climate Change: Myths and Realities.

Peter Dorman, Evergreen State College, Olympia, Washington, USA.

3. Contending Economic Theories: Neoclassical, Keynesian and Marxian.

Richard D. Wolff, New School University, New York, NY, USA.

4. Big History: An Introduction to 13.8 billion Years of History Since the Big Bang.

David Baker, University of Amsterdam, Netherlands.

Thursday July 16, 6PM, UFR Sciences Montaury: a free public debate with the four instructors. They will each bring their own perspective to the question "Is a Better World Possible ? " - a theme that runs through the four courses. See the site for other planned events.

For Information / Registration / Fees, visit <http://bcmss.sciencesconf.org/>