INTERNSHIP/PLACEMENT INFORMATION
Department	Basque language & culture lectureship at the Goethe University of Frankfurt Department of linguistics and department of Romanic languages.
Description of project/activities	The trainee will help the Basque language lecturer in the main activities and projects of the Basque Language and culture lectureship of the Etxepare Institute at the Goethe University of Frankfurt. The main activity will be at the library, inventorying and catalogising books and magazines. In addition, the trainee will have the possibility to give classes in collaboration with the lecturer, which will be tutored and evaluated. Furthermore, the trainee will have the opportunity to propose and develop new activities to complete the university's Basque offer. The main task: The Goethe University has the biggest Basque library in Germany. This Basque library is part of the university library and contains around 4.000 books. The collection includes novels of Basque authors in Basque and other foreign languages, grammar books, study materials, history books and much more. Apart from the books that have already been integrated in the university library and already can be borrowed and used, there is a large collection of books and magazines that still has to be inventoried. There are around 1000 books and magazines that have to be analyzed, classified and inventoried. The job of the trainee will be to analyze, classify and inventory these books and magazines and add a signature to them. For this purpose, the trainee will have the help of the lecturer in the beginning and will become more independent during the

COMPETENCES, SKILLS and EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS
Requested profile(s) information (Studies, previous experience, language skills, other skills...)	The trainee must speak Basque and English or German. German knowledge is not essential but will be positively valued. Studies: Basque Studies, Translation and Interpreting Studies or similar. As the main task of the traineeship will be classifying and catalogizing books, experience in this field will be positively valued. In addition, experience in Basque Language teaching will also be taken into account. Furthermore, motivation and willingness to help and take part in various events and activities of the Basque Language Lectureship will be essential. Through this internship, the trainee will learn how a Basque Language lectureship works and obtain hands on experience in Basque Language Teaching, event organizing and librarianship. At the end of this internship the trainee will be qualified to apply for a position as a lecturer in the future.
