IMPROVING ENGLISH-MEDIUM INSTRUCTION SKILLS – ONLINE TUTORING

Introduction: Who is the course for?

This course is designed for university lecturers who wish to receive practical advice and feedback on their English-medium classes.

Participants should be teaching in English.

Course objectives:

Participants will have the opportunity to discuss language and EM class issues with a tutor.

Expected learning outcomes

Participants will:

- identify areas of their classroom practice to focus on: language, pronunciation, support material, aspects of pedagogy, etc.
- carry out preparatory work: questions, doubts queries, recordings etc. to send to tutor prior to online video conference with tutor.
- attend online conferencing sessions. Two group video conferences and four individual tutorials.
- reflect on their practice and plan for further professional development.

Course assessment:
To have successfully completed the course, participants will be required to:
- attend the group and individual video conferences.
- complete the set tasks.

Course duration:
Presentation: December 20th 2018
Tutorials: January – May 2019

Calendar:
1. Initial and final group video conference: 2 x 1 hour
2. Four individual video conference tutorials: 4 x 45 mins.
Days and times to be confirmed.