

IMPROVING ENGLISH-MEDIUM INSTRUCTION SKILLS AT C1 LEVEL

Introduction: Who is the course for?

The course is designed to further the English-medium teaching skills of university lecturers who are at present teaching their subject in English. The course is essentially practical and teachers are encouraged to relate the course sessions to their own teaching context and experience.

Participants should have a C1 level of English.

Course Objectives:

Participants will have the opportunity to update their EMI skills through focussing on university communication contexts such as lectures, seminars and tutorials.

Expected learning outcomes

Participants will:

- share their experience of teaching in English in order to explore the difficulties encountered and to discuss possible solutions
- analyse and review current teaching practices and advance their communication skills through micro-teaching sessions with peer review and tutor feedback.
- up-date their language skills and improve their confidence and fluency in oral discourse through a variety of focused activities.
- view tools and resources for further professional development.

Course assessment:

To have successfully completed the course, participants will be required to:

- attend the course for at least 80% of the 25 hours in class.
- complete the set tasks.
- participate actively in class.

Course duration:

The course consists of 5 x 5 hour sessions. (25 hours)

It will be offered in: Leioa & Gasteiz

Dates: 1st – 5th July 2019
