-Criteria of evaluation: Exposition of their opinions, questioning, collaboration. -Value: 10% of the final grade.

For students with a final test, the evaluation will be done by means of a written test of three questions and a text commentary and legislation exercise.

Students wishing to resign from the call (and listed as Not Submitted) must submit in writing the corresponding request to the teacher responsible one month in advance at the end of the teaching period of the course.

The student, who is in the 1st to 4th convocations, wishes to be evaluated by the Court for the 5th and 6th calls, must submit the corresponding request in writing to the responsible teacher one month before the official exam date foreseen in the Corresponding ordinary convocation.

Students who have the right to carry out only a final test (therefore, apart from continuous evaluation), will carry out a single written test that will cover the entire subject matter. The evaluation of students eligible to final test will be done through a written test consisting of two parts: Theory and Practice. The student can pass the course if he /she obtains a global note of 5 like minimum having always obtained more than 50% in each one of the different evaluation evidence. Non-performance of the written test will be considered as Not Presented.

The evaluation criteria of learning outcomes respond to success in the responses, reasoning ability, diagnosis and conclusions in clear and fluent communication in written and oral presentations and active participation in class.

EXTRAORDINARY EXAMINATION PERIOD: GUIDELINES AND OPTING OUT

The students who do not approve the subject in the ordinary call, will have to go to the extraordinary call, in which the final evaluation system is applied. Therefore, the evaluation will be carried out by means of a single written test that will cover the complete syllabus of the subject. the evaluation of students eligible to final test will be done through a written test consisting of two parts: Theory and Practice. To pass the course must pass each. Non-performance of the written test will be considered as Not Presented.

To give up the extraordinary exam will be sufficient not to run it.
