Brief Description of Institution

The University of the Basque Country (Euskal Herriko Unibertsitatea, EHU) is the main higher education institution in the Basque Country and one of the most significant in Spain in education, research, innovation, and technological development. Ranked among the world's top 400 universities by the Shanghai ranking, it is a public institution present across the three provinces of the Basque Autonomous Community.

Deeply rooted in Basque culture and open internationally, EHU plays a strong intellectual leadership role and demonstrates clear ethical and social commitment. With three campuses, twenty academic centers, and over 300 undergraduate and postgraduate programs, it serves more than 50,000 people daily, including students, faculty, and staff.

EHU promotes international collaboration, notably through a cross-border campus with the University of Bordeaux, membership in the ENLIGHT European University Consortium, and a transatlantic partnership with Boise State University.
