4. PLANNING

CLASS TIME PLANNING

The following is an approximate division of a class, although these percentages may vary according to the needs of the students and the learning pace of the group:

- Introduction and review of the previous class: 10 %.
- Presentation of new content and explanation: 15 %.
- Oral and written practice in pairs or small groups: 15 %.
- Reading comprehension activities: 15 %.
- Vocabulary expansion and practical exercises: 15 %.
- Questions and answers, and feedback: 20 %.
- Closing of the class: 10 %.

5. METHODOLOGY

The methodology of the course is based on a communicative and interactive approach, focusing on the students developing their learning skills. The course aims to work on the four linguistic skills (listening and reading comprehension, writing and oral expression) in a balanced way while applying them to real-life communicative situations through:

- Task-based learning: learning is promoted through the performance of meaningful and contextualized tasks that reflect real-life situations.
- Work in pairs and groups: collaborative work and interaction among students is encouraged.
- Use of practical materials: practical materials such as texts, audios, videos and real communication situations are used to develop students' communicative competence.
- Use of ICT (Information and Communication Technologies): technological tools, such as Google Classroom, are used to enrich the teaching-learning process.
- Formative evaluation and feedback: continuous and formative evaluation is carried out to monitor student progress. Regular feedback is provided on their performance and opportunities for improvement are offered.

6. ACTIVITIES OUTSIDE THE CLASS

ACTIVITY 1

February 18

Hello, nice to meet you. An activity will be organized in which the student will perform a linguistic survey in the local community. Divided into groups, each group will formulate questions related to the topics given in class, such as greetings, daily expressions or culinary preferences. The student will interview local people and collect information about the use of the language in the community.

ACTIVITY 2

March 11

To eat in and take away. We will organize a meal in a local restaurant. The student will have the opportunity to practice the target language by interacting with the restaurant staff and order in the target language. Vocabulary and useful phrases are provided before the activity. After eating, there will be a short discussion about the culinary experiences and opinions will be shared.

ACTIVITY 3

April 1

A cultural afternoon. The students will visit a place of cultural interest where they will explore the culture, history or art of the region. It will encourage them to closely observe the place and take notes of the most interesting aspects. After the visit, there will be a conversation activity to share impressions and reflexions about what has been learned during the visit.

ACTIVITY 4

April 15

Tastes and smells. The students will explore and learn about local products, they will be encouraged to interact with local merchants. They will learn and practice questions and expressions related to asking and negotiating prices, product quality, portions, weighing, food allergies, and the evaluation of products and services. At the end of the visit, students will be able to share their impressions and experiences in a group conversation activity.

Dates for outdoor activities are indicative and may change due to holidays, space availability, or group needs.

7. TUTORING

If needed, students may contact us at escuela@always-idiommas.com and request a tutoring session with their teacher on the following dates and times:

| TUTORING | DATE | TIME |

| Fourth | Monday, April 27 | 13:30 to 14:00 |

8. EVALUATION

The evaluation of students enrolled in the course is done by taking into consideration their class attendance. Depending on the case, continuous or final evaluation will be applied.

8.1. CONTINUOUS EVALUATION

Continuous evaluation is applied if the student has participated in at least 85 % of the classes.

The final grade (100 %) will be the result of the average grades in the following sections:

- 1) Attitude and participation in class.
- 2) Graded assignments.
- 3) Final examination.

It is necessary to pass each assessed section (1, 2 and 3) with a minimum mark of 5 over 10 for the average to be calculated.

8.1. CONTINUOUS EVALUATION

1) Attitude and participation in class, 20 % of the qualification

Attitude: evaluation of behavior in class, respect towards teachers and classmates.

Participation: evaluation of participation level in class based on questions and answers, interactions with other students and contributions in discussions.

2) Graded assignments, 40 % of the qualification

Evaluation of completion and quality of graded assignments during the course: listening and reading comprehension, and oral and written expression (10 % each).

The four marks will be the average. Assignments not handed in will be graded 0.

3) Final examination, 40 % of the qualification

Integral evaluation of the four linguistic skills (reading and listening comprehension, oral and written expression) and knowledge of vocabulary and grammar acquired throughout the course.

It is necessary to pass each section in the final examination with a minimum mark of 5.

The exam will be on May 11 (single exam call) and will be about 60-90 minutes.

8.2 FINAL EVALUATION

Final evaluation is applied if the student has not participated in 85 % of the classes.

The grade will depend 100 % on final examination. To pass the course, it is necessary to pass all sections tested in the final exam with a minimum mark of 5.

Final examination: 100 % of the grade.

The final examination will be on May 11 (single exam call) and will be about 60-90 minutes.
