4. PLANNING

CLASS TIME PLANNING

The following is an approximate division of a class:

- Introduction and review of the previous class: 10 % of the time.
- Presentation of new content and explanation: 15 % of the time.
- Oral and written practice in pairs or small groups: 15 % of the time.
- Reading comprehension activities: 15 % of the time.
- Vocabulary expansion and practical exercises: 15 % of the time.
- Questions and answers, and feedback: 20 % of the time.
- Closing of the class: 10 % of the time.

It is important to keep in mind that these percentages are only a suggestion and may vary according to the needs of the students and the learning pace of the class.

5. METHODOLOGY

The methodology of the course is based on a communicative and interactive approach, focusing on the students developing their learning skills. The course aims to work on the four linguistic skills (listening and reading comprehension, writing and oral expression) in a balanced way while applying them to real-life communicative situations through:

- Task-based learning. Learning is promoted through the performance of meaningful and contextualized tasks that reflect real-life situations.
- Work in pairs and groups. Collaborative work and interaction among students is encouraged.
- Use of practical materials. Practical materials such as texts, audios, videos and real communication situations are used to develop students' communicative competence.
- Use of ICT (Information and Communication Technologies). Technological tools, such as Google Classroom, are used to enrich the teaching-learning process.
- Formative evaluation and feedback. Continuous and formative evaluation is carried out to monitor student progress. Regular feedback is provided on their performance and opportunities for improvement are offered.

6. EVALUATION

The evaluation of students enrolled in the course is done by taking into consideration their class attendance. Depending on the case, continuous or final evaluation will be applied.

6.1. CONTINUOUS EVALUATION

Continuous evaluation is applied if the student has participated in at least 85 % of the classes.

The final grade (100 %) will be the result of the average grades in the following sections:

- 1) Attitude and participation in class.
- 2) Graded assignments.
- 3) Final examination.

It is necessary to pass each section with a minimum mark of 5 over 10 for the averages to be calculated in the following percentages:

6.1. CONTINUOUS EVALUATION

1) Attitude and participation in class, 20 % of the qualification

Attitude. Evaluation of behavior in class, respect towards teachers and classmates.

Participation. Evaluation of participation level in class based on questions and answers, interactions with other students and contributions in discussions.

2) Graded assignments, 40 % of the qualification

Evaluation of completion and quality of graded assignments during the course: listening and reading comprehension, and oral and written expression (10 % each).

The mark for this section will be the average of the marks of the four skills. Assignments not handed in will be graded 0.

3) Final examination, 40% of the qualification

Integral evaluation of the four linguistic skills (reading and listening comprehension, oral and written expression) and knowledge of vocabulary and grammar acquired throughout the course.

It is necessary to pass each section in the final examination with a minimum mark of 5.

The exam will be on September 4 and will be about 60-90 minutes.

6.2. FINAL EVALUATION

Final evaluation is applied if the student has not participated in 85 % of the classes.

The grade will depend 100 % on final examination. To pass the course, it is necessary to pass all sections tested in the final exam with a minimum mark of 5.

Final examination: 100 % of the grade.

The final examination will be on September 4 and will be about 60-90 minutes.
